

Born On Christmas Day

From Pukeko Stomp

Long, long ago a child was born,
In a stable safe and warm.
The inns were full, no place to stay,
So Mary gave birth in the hay.

Little baby Jesus,
Lying in the hay,
Little baby Jesus,
Born on Christmas Day.

A shepherd watched his flock of sheep,
Resting falling half asleep,
"Rejoice" the angel called to him,
"A King is born in Bethlehem."

Little baby Jesus,
Lying in the hay,
Little baby Jesus,
Born on Christmas Day.

Three kings, they came from distant lands,
Travelled 'cross the desert sands,
All following the bright new star,
With gold and frankincense and myrrh.

Little baby Jesus,
Lying in the hay,
Little baby Jesus,
Born on Christmas Day.

By Janet Channon

© Kids Music Company 2000