

Mango Tango

By Janet Channon & Leah Channon

A long tall banana and an orange like a ball,
A pear with a point on top,
A huge watermelon and a bunch of grapes,
Got together at the fresh fruit shop.
They were moving and grooving
And grooving and moving,
Along came a juicy ripe mango,
Who joined in the moving
And joined in the grooving
And made it a mango tango.

Do the mango tango,
Do the mango tango,
The mango tango is juicy and sweet,
Do the mango tango,
Do the mango tango,
The fresh fruit flavours are yummy to eat.

A long tall banana...

Do the mango tango...

Do the mango tango with your fingers
And the mango tango with your thumbs,
Do the mango tango on your back
And the mango tango on your tum,
Do the mango tango on your forehead
And the mango tango on your heel,
My whole body has a tango feel
From my fresh fruit mango tango meal.

Do the mango tango with your fingers...

Do the mango tango,
Do the mango tango,
The mango tango is juicy and sweet,
Do the mango tango,
Do the mango tango,
The fresh fruit flavours are yummy to eat.
